

2022 RODNEY S. KETCHAM LEADERSHIP ICON AWARD

One of Kendall's gifts is connecting with people and connecting people with one another. He selflessly invests in building leaders in our community, and through these efforts continues to strengthen the legal community, the political community, the business community, communities of diversity, and every area those circles overlap. He contributes to a better Brevard through strategic vision, service, and leadership.

When notified of the award, Moore said: "Thank you LEAD Brevard! I consider it a privilege to be placed in such distinguished ranks as those of the past recipients of this award. Their collective legacies represent a substantial body of positive work helping to make this great community a better place. I look forward to many more years of working together for the betterment of Brevard County."

Kendall is the Managing Partner of the Moore Law Group, PLLC and holds a Juris Doctorate from University of Florida College of Law and a B.A. from Morehouse College.

Moore is also the principal of Space Coast Strategy, Inc., a governmental relations and political consulting firm. The firm handles local government matters across Central Florida.

He served as a City Councilman for the City of Rockledge from 2000-2006 and has served in leadership roles for notable local nonprofits and educational institutions throughout the County. Currently, he serves on the boards of My Community Cares, Inc.; The Children's Hunger Project and Florida Institute of Technology. Moore was also the 2019 Chairman of the African American Chamber of Commerce of Central Florida and is a previous member and chairman of the LEAD Brevard board of directors, a graduate of Leadership Miami and a recipient of the 4 Under 40 recognition in 2007. Additionally, he was a recipient of the Dr. Harvey L. Riley Bridge Builder Award from Florida Institute of Technology in 2018, the Business Leader of the Year Award from Spacecoast Business in 2015, the Bridge Builder Award from United Way of Brevard in 2009, touted as one of the Top 100 Most Powerful People on the Space Coast in 2010 and recognized with a star on the Brevard Walk of Fame in 2012.

Kendall remains involved with LEAD Brevard, as a frequent presenter on grassroots leadership and other topics. He recently led the Civic Engagement in the Public Sector session for the Leadership Brevard class 2022.

Kendall is happily married to Dr. Kelley Moore and is the proud father of Kendall II (Ty) and Kaelyn and he strongly believes in the mantra, "To Whom Much Is Given, Much Is Required."
